

PRESS RELEASE

Nick Tims joins Posaidon as Managing Partner

16 January 2023 – Zug and London: Posaidon Capital is pleased to announce the appointment of Nick Tims as a managing partner of the Firm, joining founder Fabian Huwyler and Matthew McLuckie as co-managing partners. At Posaidon, Nick will be leading the firm’s capital raising and distribution work.

Nick was previously founder and CEO of BlackFin Advisors, the corporate advisory firm, and before that managing director of private markets at 91 Asset Management. He had formerly managed the top-ranked equity sales team at Merrill Lynch and been a director of a publicly listed UK hedge fund. Nick sits on the Boards of a number of leading African conservation NGOs and combines a deep knowledge of this with some three decades of senior financial services experience in public and private markets.

Matthew McLuckie, co-Managing Partner, commented: “We are delighted to welcome Nick into our partnership. Structuring and delivering technically complex nature-based solutions through capital markets requires a high degree of financial experience. Nick’s track record across real assets and structured finance is invaluable to Posaidon’s high conviction portfolio of innovative green/blue bonds, capital placements and thematic asset management products.”
